"Whether your hair is mousy brown or electric blue, whether you listen to classical concertos or cutting edge undiscovered bands, whether you like sushi or greasy diner food, trashy novels or great lit in dead languages, you'll find those who share your tastes at Senior House. And if you can't peg yourself on this either/or list, we'll love you all the more. Senior House residents are happy to sometimes march off the beat of any drummer. And long after you've left MIT, you'll always want to come home again."
